Dear Mr. Staal,

Thank you very much for submitting us your manuscript, Settling the Account to Yad Vashem Publications in order to consider publishing a Hebrew translation.

While we value the importance of your story regrettably it was decided that we would not be able to publish it by Yad Vashem. Once again, our sincere apologies for the time that has passed and thank you very much for your patience throughout the process.

We wish you the best of luck with all your endeavors.

Sincerely,

Ella Florsheim
